Preparatory visit to Reykjavik Iceland

Project number: 2022-1-HR01-KA121-VET-000060772

Reykjavik 30th August - 3rd September 2022.

Preparatory meeting is for the coordinator of Tourism and catering School Split – Andrija Krištić, project manager Jóhanna Ingvarsdóttir from Hofdi Horizon ehf. and the mentors from the Grand Hotel Reykjavik who are involved in project activities.

The purpose of preparatory meeting is to bring people together and face to face meetings cannot be completely replaced by online communication.

The meeting in Reykjavik will be essential for discussing all the aspects of the project, sharing and defining responsibilities, preparing the evaluation plan and the plan how to measure the impact.

The aims of the preparatory project meeting :

- to produce synergy for outcomes that are only possible by working with others;
- people get to know each other better and this is the basis for the long cooperation and personal contacts between people;
- project meetings are perfect for discussions and evaluation work;
- detailed elaboration of project activities;
- discussion about all elements of the project and process evaluation - course of preparatory activities, work on achieving project goals;
- detailed elaboration of the training program for participants;
- introducing the mentor with the student's profiles and learning agreement
- discussion on preparation of documents Europass CV, Europass mobility and certificates issued by the project partners about completed training;
- discussing about students working time, condition at the working place;
- discussing about the contacts and links in case of emergency, and risk-prevention guidelines;
- coping with health and safety protocol, homesickness;
- coping with difficult situations that can happen with the students during their internship, like students responding to the criticism, compliment, assertive skills etc.
- solving conflict situations, expressing difficult emotions, anger;
- discussing all the important issues connected with travelling and transport (public buses, tickets etc.) of the whole group of participants and accommodation for the participants (rooms, equipment in the rooms etc.);
- discussing about the cultural full day tours visits, social and welfare program;
- discussion on the financial issue, organisational costs, paying methods, invoice;
- to discuss the ways of communication;

All these aforementioned tasks should help in maximising the impact on students' internships. Communication allows all the participants to develop their understanding of the diversity of European cultures and languages, learn from each other and helps students acquire competences.
